Kotler's book begins with a clear definition of marketing as a process of building profitable relationships with customers by delivering superior value. It traces the evolution from simple exchanges to complex, technology-driven interactions, highlighting the importance of adapting to changing consumer behaviors and technological advancements.

2. The Marketing Environment

A crucial principle emphasized is that marketing operates within a dynamic environment influenced by micro and macro factors:

4. Segmentation, Targeting, and Positioning (STP)

The STP framework remains central:

- Segmentation: Dividing the market into distinct groups of buyers who have different needs, characteristics, or behaviors.
- Targeting: Selecting which segments to serve.
