Origins and Discovery of the Cairo Genizah

Historical Background

The Cairo Genizah refers to a storeroom or burial chamber in the Ben Ezra Synagogue in Cairo, Egypt, where ancient Jewish texts were stored over centuries. The term "Genizah" comes from the Hebrew word "genizah," meaning "storage" or "repository," specifically for sacred texts that could not be discarded due to religious laws. Jewish tradition mandates that sacred writings containing the name of God be treated with reverence, and thus, they are not destroyed but stored safely.

The practice of storing these texts in the Ben Ezra Synagogue began around the 11th century and continued into the 19th century. Over this extensive period, countless manuscripts accumulated, many of which fell into obscurity until their accidental or intentional discovery.

The discovery of the Genizah as a treasure trove happened in the late 19th century when Solomon Schechter, a prominent Jewish scholar, and his team uncovered thousands of fragments during restoration work at the synagogue in 1896.
