Early Life and Influences

Drew Struzan was born in 1947 in Oregon, where he developed an early fascination with drawing and painting. Influenced by artists such as Norman Rockwell, Alphonse Mucha, and classic illustrators, Struzan cultivated a style rooted in realism, meticulous detail, and a storytelling sensibility. His formative years were marked by a desire to emulate the grandeur of cinematic and commercial art, setting the stage for his future career.

Transition to Professional Art

After studying at the California Institute of the Arts and working in commercial art, Struzan's breakthrough came when he began creating posters for films and music albums. His early work displayed a mastery of airbrushing, a technique he would refine over the years, enabling him to achieve smooth gradients and lifelike textures.
