Introduction to Foxhollow Farm: A Legacy of Family and Sustainability

Historical Background and Family Heritage

Foxhollow Farm, located in the scenic Hudson Valley, has been a family-run operation for over three decades. Founded by the Johnson family in the late 1980s, the farm was initially a modest plot of land used for traditional agriculture. Over the years, the family's commitment to sustainable practices and community involvement transformed Foxhollow into a model eco-farm. Today, it stands as a testament to how small-scale farming can coexist with environmental stewardship and economic viability.

The farm's history is intertwined with the Johnson family's passion for preserving the land and passing down farming traditions. Each generation has contributed to its evolution, integrating modern sustainable techniques while honoring the legacy of the land. Visitors today can see this blend of tradition and innovation reflected in the farm's operations.
