The story begins in the land of the Aboriginal people, where Tiddalick, a large and lazy frog, lives happily among his fellow creatures. Tiddalick is known for his enormous size and his love of drinking water. Every day, he hops to the waterholes and drinks until he is full, often causing the water levels to rise.

One day, Tiddalick's excessive drinking causes a problem. The waterholes start to dry up, and the other animals, such as kangaroos, emus, and possums, struggle to find enough water to survive. The animals become worried and decide to confront Tiddalick, asking him to stop drinking so much.
